

PRESS RELEASE

August 20, 2003

For Further Information

Contact: Kathi Dimmock

Director of Marketing & Sales

706-821-0607 / 800-325-5445, X5581

dimmockk@nscdiscovery.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER – OCTOBER, 2003 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

- Now – September 21 “Return of the Dinosaurs” exhibit, Regular Operating Hours, Knox Gallery. They’re Big . . . They’re Loud . . . They Stomp . . . They Roar! Don’t miss these lively Dinosaurs and a variety of activities and shows surrounding this exhibit. Dino photo opportunity, shopping in The Science Store, Birthday Parties, movies in the Discovery Theater, Overnight Camp-Ins, Discovery Labs and Field Trips are all part of the excitement! Visit our web for complete details.
- September 16 Open House for Educators, 4 – 7 p.m. Fort Discovery Educators are invited to visit Fort Discovery for FREE refreshments, drawings for door prizes and a chance to learn more about new programs, Theater presentations and the JASON Project. Visit our web for complete details. For further information contact: Rhonda Carroll at 821-0213 or Jan Hemphill at 821-0212.
- October 2 Best of Augusta Bash, 7 – 10 p.m., Fort Discovery Join us as we salute the winners of Augusta Magazine’s Best of Augusta 2003 winners. Sample foods and beverages from Augusta’s best restaurants and listen to the best entertainment groups in our area. Admission is $10/advance; $15/at the door and advance tickets are available at Fort Discovery and The Augusta Chronicle cashier’s office.

October 18 – January 31 “Celebration of Flight” Exhibit, Regular Operating Hours, Knox Gallery, Fort Discovery
Celebrating 100 years of flight, the focal points of the exhibit will be an Augusta built, full-scale replica of the 1903 Wright Flyer and a half-scale replica of a Curtiss JN-4D Jenny. The exhibit will highlight powered flight achievements and features presentations, an exciting display from NASA, exhibits and historical Augusta flight artifacts. Also available: school field trips and discovery labs, group visits and workshops, birthday parties, overnight camp-ins, facility rentals, scout workshops and science to go programs. Visit our web for complete details.

October 25 Halloween Happening, 2 – 5 p.m., Fort Discovery
Bring the family to Fort Discovery for a fun and exciting afternoon of make-and-take activities, weird science demos, drawings for prizes, a costume parade, goodie bags and refreshments. $4.00/adults; $3.00/children and members are FREE. Sponsored by Fort Discovery, FOX 54 and LITE 98.

www.NationalScienceCenter.org