

Contact: Julie Butler, Marketing Director, National Science Center
(706) 821-0607, butlerj@nscdiscovery.org

January 22, 2009

For Immediate Release

Augusta, GA. - The public is welcomed to bring electronics for recycling to the National Science Center's Fort Discovery this Saturday, January 24, 2009 from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Drop off will be at the Fort Discovery Bus Entrance – between 7th and 8th Streets, in Downtown Augusta – off Reynolds St. All FREE – except TVs – please see list below:

Acceptable electronic items include: Computers, monitors, desktop CPU's, LCD display-Laptops, notebook computers, CD, CDRW drives, DVD, hard, floppy, and zip drives, scanners, printers, fax machines, adding machines, cell phones, corded phones, cordless phones, answering machines, pagers, pocket PC's, data cartridges, PC and digital cameras, servers, routers, hubs, remotes, and PDA's. Unacceptable Items include: Kitchen appliances, washers, dryers, wood speakers, electric ovens or microwave ovens.

TV RECYCLING: $10 charge per TV—CASH ONLY

Sponsored By:

CSRA Environmental Science Education Cooperative
ESEC

www.csraesec.org
For more information contact:

Cheryl Wynn
706-821-0224

Creative Recycling Responsible Recycling

ESEC member organizations include state and federal governmental groups, colleges and universities, businesses and nonprofit groups. All have strong environmental education interests and all volunteer their time and resources.

###