Lunch with the Mayor
Wednesday, March 11, 2009
Noon

Augusta, GA. – Eleven lucky students at Episcopal Day School (Augusta) have won lunch with the mayor this Wednesday! The school recently asked students to write essays on the topic: “What would I ask the mayor?”

Eighty students delivered their essays to Headmaster Ned Murray. Mayor Deke Copenhaver agreed to join Mr. Murray and the winning children at Fat Man’s Riverfront Café (located on the first level of National Science Center’s Fort Discovery) for lunch. The mayor will be fielding questions between bites.
