Masters Gala 2002 Features the Louise Mandrell Show With Guest Emcee Billy Crystal

AUGUSTA, GA -- The National Science Center will host the annual Masters Gala 2002 on Friday, April 12, 9 p.m., at the Bell Auditorium. Featured entertainment will be the Louise Mandrell Show (including Ms. Mandrell, her singers, dancers and orchestra) with guest emcee Billy Crystal.

Sponsor Packages are available at the contribution levels of Gold, $10,000; Silver, $5,000 and Bronze, $2,500. Packages include invitations for eight to the private reception prior to the concert at Fort Discovery with Billy Crystal and Louise Mandrell, reserved table for eight including drinks and dessert at the Bell Auditorium, VIP parking and recognition in the program. For reservations of a full or partial table, call 706-821-0648 or 800-325-5445, ext. 5551 or email RSVP@NSCDISCOVERY.ORG.

Concert only seats in the balcony at the Bell Auditorium will be $45.00 each and go on sale March 15 through TicketMaster outlets.

Entertain your guests and support a great cause at the event rivaled in excitement only by the Masters Tournament. The National Science Center is a non-profit corporation headquartered at Fort Discovery in Augusta, GA. The mission of the National Science Center is to be a catalyst to excite children to learn math, science and technology skills through informal and exciting educational experiences.
